Mrs. Sanford Testifies to Having Paid Out Money for Protection.

The most sensational testimony yet heard by the Lexow Senate Committee, which is investigating the Police Department, was given by Charles Prien to-day's session. Prien, who formerly kept a disorderly house at 25 Bayard street, said that during the six years he kept the place he had paid out more than $3,000 for police protection.

He said that at first he was assessed a month, then as the precinct captains were changed he paid $50 a month for initiation fees at various times for "initiation."

MR. PRIEN.

The money, he said, was given to ward men who made regular demands upon him. Other keepers of disorderly houses were similarly assessed, he declared.

When the Committee resumed its session in Part II, of the Superior Court this morning Mr. Goff said that he was uncertain who would be called as the first witness.

Apparently all hope of securing Gideon Granger, the elusive ex-son-in-law of Police Commissioner McLaughlin, as a witness had perished, for, as told in "The World" this morning, Granger wrote to his lawyer, Mr. Sullivan, of Mount Vernon, yesterday telling him that "the jig was up," and he proposed to get out of the country as soon as possible.

Granger in his letter stated very positively that nothing would induce him to appear before the Committee again, and that the signing of the decree of divorce in favor of his wife, Clara McLaughlin, by Granger, by Judge Dugro had led him to this decision.

Several prominent hotel proprietors and saloon-keepers of the town have been arrested for alleged violation of the excise laws on warrants issued by Wilson. Among them are Emil Schiellein, Fred Boyl, William Warner, John S. Schenck, John Whitaker, John Belmont, William Hutchinson and William Kaiser.

These men say that Wilson blames them for being instrumental in having the Police Commissioners pass the resolution which is obnoxious to him.

They say that if Wilson tries their cases they will not get justice.

BUENOS AYRES, June 1.—In addition to the eleven firms doing business on the Bourse who failed, as announced yesterday, twenty-four brokers on the out-operations. The cause of their failure is stated to have been the fact that they were speculating for a fall in prices, which did not occur.

SLAP AT JUSTICE WILSON.

Flatlands Excise Arrests.

Liquor-Dealers Say He Is Prejudiced Against Them.

Justice Gaynor, of the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, on the application of Thomas E. Fernald, has signed an order transferring several cases of alleged violation of the excise laws from Justice of the Peace John M. Wilson, of Flatlands, to the Grand Jury. It is claimed that Wilson is prejudiced.

Some time ago the Police Commissioners of the town of Flatlands passed a resolution ordering that in the future warrants shall be served by the members of the police force of the town, instead of by the constables.

It is claimed that all of the Justices of the Peace except Wilson agreed to the resolution.

It is alleged that Wilson has two pet constables, Richard McAvoy and A. L.
Lomen, who have made some delicate service warrants and about $5,000.

Wilson, it is claimed, is angry because the fees of the constables have been cut out.

Several prominent hotel proprietors
been arrested for alleged violation of
the excise laws on warrants issued by Wilson. Among them are Emil Schiel-
lein, Fred Boyl, William Warner, John
S. Schenck, John Whitaker, John Belmont, William Hutchinson and William Kaiser.

THE HOFFMAN'S END?

Result of W. E. D. Stokes's Struggle in New Jersey Courts.

Cousin Ed Absent When Chancellor Greene Made His Decision.

Counselor Keady appeared before Vice-Chancellor Greene in Chancery Chambers, Jersey City, this morning on behalf of W. E. D. Stokes, and asked for the annulment of the charter of the Hoffman House corporation.

In the affidavit made by Mr. Stokes he sets forth that an order was obtained January last directing the President and directors of the corporation to file with the Sergeant-at-Arms of the Chancery Court of the State of New Jersey, all books and papers pertaining to the Hoffman House corporation.

Edward R. Stokes, President and Manager of the Hoffman House, which is a distinct corporation chartered in New York State, Feb. 15 last, said that he would only obey the order of the New York court, and therefore null and void.

Neither Edward R. Stokes nor the officers of the corporation were represented in person or by counsel at the hearing to-day. Vice-Chancellor Greene declared that he would not make a decision in the case until he had heard from both sides.

One of the officers of the Hoffman House, which is a distinct corporation under the New York charter, told an "Evening World" reporter this morning that Vice-Chancellor Greene's decision would in no wise affect the hotel or its management.

"We have nothing whatever to do with the New Jersey court," Mr. E. R. Stokes, as President of the new company, bought the Hoffman House at public sale March 15 last, under an order of the New York Supreme Court.

"This order of the New York Supreme Court is the application of the Hoffman House and Trust Company, to which the old company was heavily indebted."

Joe Vendig, when spoken to this after-Corbett-Jackson fight, the story of which will be found on page 6, said:

"The offer is made by the Athletic Club of Jacksonville, an organization over which I have complete control. Bowden Mason and the others who managed, or rather, mismanaged, the Corbett-Mitchell fight, have nothing whatever to do with this Club."

"The other members of the new Club are prominent business men of Jackso-ville, and I do not care to mention their names, as they may have some delicacy in being spoken of as sponsors for a prize-fight. The purse is $35,000 and $35,000, as has been stated."

"One thousand dollars will be advanced to each of the fighters for training expenses."

The only hitch is that usual one of the coln, and whatever the figures are for his release or the terms, are not known, but undoubtedly amicable arrangements will be made, and next week Connor may be seen guarding first for St. Louis.

This will cause a few changes in the CHILD FALLS FIVE STORIES.

Little Joseph Armstrong Drops to Death from His Mother's Side.

Joseph Armstrong, two and one-half years old, fell from a window at his parents' apartments on the fifth floor of 630 East One Hundred and Fortieth street at 10 o'clock this morning to the foot of a light-shaft, and was instantly killed. The child's father, William Armstrong, a machine stone worker, was absent at his employment.

Mrs. Armstrong had dressed all her children, including a two-months-old baby, this morning and then entered a small room looking out upon the airshaft below. When the boy Joseph followed her she told him to sit at the window, which was open, but protected by wire netting, so that he might not hurt himself at the machine.

A few minutes later she heard a rustling sound, and turned just in time to see the wire netting and baby disappear over the window sill. Almost every bone in the child's body was broken.

Grand Jury Finds No Maladmin-

Buildings, However, Declared Totally Inadequate for Their Purposes.

Recommendation that More Money Be Spent on the Institutions.

The May Grand Jury finished its labors and reported to Judge Fitzgerald, in Part I, of the Court of General Sessions, at 12 1/2 o'clock this afternoon.
Foreman Acker handed up a bundle of indictments a presentment in the matter of the investigation into the Ward's Island Insane Asylum.

The Grand Jury found after examining many witnesses that there had been, in its opinion, no maladministration in the management of the institution on the part of the officials, but declared that the buildings were deplorably too inadquate to accommodate the number of inmates harbored there.

The investigation showed further that while the physicians and attendants are hampered by the lack of proper facilities, their treatment of the patients is uniformly humane and considerate.

The Grand Jury recommends that the number of physicians and attendants be increased, and that compensation commensurate with their services be given them.

While the food was found to be fairly good, it might be made better if there was money enough to do so.

FOR THE NEW BOULEVARD.

Hearing Before the Mayor on the Heintz Project.

One Property Owner Thinks It's a Real Estate Job.

A public hearing was given to-day by the Board of Street Openings in the Mayor's office in regard to the proposed boulevard above the Harlem River, designed by the late Commissioner Heintz.

More than one hundred property owners attended the hearing. All the property owners but two favored the plan, the objectors being James S. Ketchum, who thought the project interesting to real estate speculators only, and Theodore Roehrs, who would favor the plan if there was immediate prospect of it being carried out.

Among those present to advocate the adoption of the plan were City Clerk Adrian, Senator Assemblyman Butts, H. C. Camp, ex-Judge Ernest Hall, John C. De La Vergne, John O. Dunn and others.

The map of the central section, submitted by Commissioner Heintz to the Board, embraces the district bounded on the north by Van Cortlandt Park and Manhattan Park, on the east by Westchester avenue, and west by Jerome avenue. The hearing was postponed for two weeks.

Rev. Dr. Taylor Seriously Ill.
Rev. Dr. William M. Taylor, late pastor of the not apprehend a change for the worse at present. At Dr. Taylor's residence to-day it was stated that his condition was unchanged.

SECOND RACE CALIFORNIA'S.

Morris Park.

(Special to The Evening World.)

RACE TRACK, MORRIS PARK, June 1.— A field of nineteen three-year-olds faced the starter in the opening event here to-day.

The conditions read for horses which had never won $500. The spectators wondered that there were so many horses of that age that had never won that amount.

The field was unwieldy, and gave the starter considerable trouble. Lord Harstone enlivened things by bolting through the rail which was placed across the upper turn, where it crosses the straight.
The horse was not injured, and stopped the field.

Drum Major was left at the post. Of the others, Pondolpe, Disturbance, Our Jack and La Miere showed in front, and had the race between them.

Midgley let Our Jack race along until they struck the bottom of the incline.
Then he sent him home and won easily by a scant length from Pondolpe, who had been pacemaker from the start.
Disturbance, whipped and spurred for half a mile, hung on gamely, and ran third money.

La Miere was a strong favorite, and the Pondolpe party took considerable money out of the ring. Pondolpe, who lost the last race, was a good bet, and the big money bet on Our Jack kept them at a comparatively long price.

Receipts of $15,000, with 6,000 tickets, or
